

Rise Up

OUR CELEBRATION OF RESILIENCE

Thursday, November 14th, 2024 • 6pm-9pm
Chicago Theatre Works • 1113 W. Belmont Ave. • Chicago, IL 60657

Join the Youth Empowerment Performance Project (YEPP) for an evening in recognition of Transgender Day of Remembrance/Resilience and Youth Homelessness Awareness Month. Through performance and communion we will honor those whose lives were taken, rejoice in the resilience of Trans and Gender Non-Conforming Youth, build community, and raise funds to support us in continuing our work.

Our Mission

YEPP strives to create a brave environment for Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer and Intersex (LGBTQI+) youth experiencing homelessness to explore their history, investigate new ways to address their struggles and to celebrate their strengths through personal, leadership and community development programming that incorporate different art-expression forms.
